

CAMERON COUNTY 4-H CLOVER KIDS

WHAT IS A CLOVER KID?

A Clover Kid is a youth member, between kindergarten to 2nd grade, that is enrolled in a county 4-H club. It is officially recognized by the Texas 4-H program for children under age 8.

WHAT DO CLOVER KIDS DO?

Clover Kids attend 4-H club meetings, county wide workshops and may participate in some prospect shows that include a peewee division.

HOW TO JOIN?

Clover Kids will need to sign up on 4-H Connect, the fee is free! Clover Kids may be added to a current family profile for or new 4-H families will need to create a family profile.

WHAT TYPE OF 4-H PROJECTS CAN CLOVER KIDS SIGN UP FOR?

- The project leader has the final word whether or not clover kids will be allowed to participate in club project practices or events. A parent may be asked to help & guide their clover kid during club project events, as well.
- Clover Kids are not to compete in District 4-H contests, however, they are allowed to participate in some Cameron County 4-H contests.
- Cameron County 4-H workshops & event flyers will display whether Clover Kids are allowed to participate.
- Clover Kids are not eligible to sell or exhibit livestock in the junior market show at the Cameron County Livestock Show or the Rio Grande Valley Livestock Show. They can only show in the Pee Wee Shows.
- Each 4-H Club Manager will determine how Clover Kids may be involved in 4-H club meetings and 4-H club events. (Note: Not all 4-H clubs will have Clover Kid opportunities)
